We are slicing 150 pounds of ENGLISH CURE BACON week, nicely put up in onepound bundles; net weight. All BACON, no rind. Try it.

SOMERS

Deerfoot Sausage

PANCAKE FLOUR

MAPLE SYRUP

LA TOURAINE COFFEE All Seasonable Good Things at

People's Market

6 Franklin Street

JUSTIN HOLDEN, Proprietor

WILLIAM C. YOUNG Successor to STETSON & YOUNG

CARPENTER and BUILDER Best work and materials at right prices by skilled labor.

Telephone 50 West Main St.

Dr. J. M. KING DENTIST

May Building fanlTuWF

TEAM HARNESS

EXPRESS HARNESS A new line at old prices.

Some good values in FUR COATS AUTO ROBES, HORSE BLANKETS Just received a carload of BUSI-NESS WAGONS at the right prices.

THE L. L. CHAPMAN CO. 14 Bath Street. Norwich, Cons.

Overhauling and Repair Work

OF ALL KINDS ON AUTOMOBILES,

CARRIAGES, WAGONS, TRUCKS and CARTS,

Mechanical Repairs, Painting, Trimning, Upholstering and Wood Work, Blacksmithing in all its branches.

Scott & Clark Corp. 507 to 515 North Main St.

LADIES!

We will cheerfully explain all about our

JITNEY PLAN

It is a pleasing way to buy Jewelry, Watches, and Diamonds.

THE PLAUT-CADDENCO.

Established 1872 PLAUT-CADDEN BUILDING

Ernest E. Bullard

VIOLIN TEACHER

All String Instruments repaired Violins sold on easy terms For appointments address E. E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Norwich, Conn.

DR. SHAHAN, Specialist on diseases of the Blood and Stomach. Culture therapy for Rheumatism, Neuritis, Tuberculosis, Anemia, Skin and Ridney troubles. Conventional or prescription treatment for the Stomach. Ensy prevention of Typhoid. Hours: 10-11 a. m., 2-4 and 7-8 p. m. Phone $21. No outside calls made after 7 p. m.

Our Improved Bronchial Lozenges

will relieve Hoarseness, Loss of Voice,

DUNN'S PHARMACY

50 Main Street.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your bus iness before the public, there is no medium better than through the ad-ventising columns of The Bulletin.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Wednesday, Jan. 31, 1917.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 5.32 this Yesterday was observed in a number places as Child Labor day.

At Andover, Ralph Bass is cutting ice on Bingham Pond 18 inches thick. Several from Norwich will attend the Motor Boat Show in New York this week.

James A. Utley while digging graves in the Columbia cemetery encountered 18 inches of frost last week.

Among those attending the funeral of David Buckley of Poplar street, Fair Haven, Monday, was Rev. M. P. Hart of Mystic.

Ignoring all automobile laws, a roadster dashed down Broadway hill at 7.45 last evening without even a tail light visible.

John Rodemeyer of Canaan has been engaged to speak at the Rockville Chamber of Commerce banquet Wed-nesday evening, Feb. 7.

The mid-winter meeting of the alumni council of Smith college will be held Feb. 19, 20 and 21. Several from Connecticut will attend.

This week's meeting of the Epworth League Cabinet of Trinity Methodist church in to be held this evening at the home of Miss Elizabeth Lane.

Reports from oyster growers of the state indicate that there will be a noticeable shortage of marketable oys-ters during the rest of the season. A tatal of $26 was deposited in the Coventry school savings bank during the past term bringing the total amount deposited to date up to $217.-

The 15th Conn. Regiment association is to hold its third annual mid-year meeting at the Hotel Oneco in New Haven, on Lincoln Day evening, Feb. 12.

At 8 o'clock, Tuesday, in St. Patrick's church, an anniversary high mass of requiem for Mr. and Mrs. John Lyons was sung by Rev. J. H.

Twelve additional cases of small-pox have been reported to the state board of health. Seven are in Ston-ington, two in New London and three in Waterbury.

The light rain late Monday night made walking dangerous as the rain froze on top of the snow covered side-walks. Rising temperature Tuesday soon left the walks clear.

Postmasters have received a notice from the post office department that the price of envelopes and newspaper wrappers has been increased slightly owing to the high cost of paper.

The funeral of Almina A., 81, widow of Alfred B. White, was held Tuesday at 2.30 at her home, No. 893 Farmington avenue, West Hartford. Mrs. White, who died Saturday, had friends

The party of Norwich tourists which sailed for the West Indies Jan. 13 has reached Havana, their steamer, The Tenadores, having been reported on Tuesday at Colon Jan. 29, on her return trip.

President Frederick H. Sykes of the Connecticut College for Women was the speaker at the meeting of the Hartford Section, Council of Jewish Women, Tuesday afternoon in the ves-try of Temple Beth Israel.

meeting of the executive

At the twenty-second annual meet-ing of the New York Federation of Monday, an address on The Present Status of the League to Enforce Peace was delivered by Hamilton Holt of New York and Woodustock.

The village of Noank is considerably stirred up over the bill that was in-troduced Friday in the general as-sembly by Mr. Holt of New London. The bill would prevent the use of otter trawls or drag nets in the wa-ters of Long Island or Fishers Island

Mrs. George Maynard Minor of Waterford, vice president general of the D. A. R., was one of the speakers Monday night at the twentieth anniversary celebration of the formation of Fort Massachusetts Chapter, D. A. R., of North Adams.

News has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel M. Fielding, of Baltic street, that the U. S. Duncan, on which their son, Lemuel O. Fielding is electrician, has reached the West Indies, after a very rough trip from Boston, which port they left Jan. 8.

All special taxes on pool tables, in public poolrooms or social quarters, bowling alleys and theatres were due and payable Monday for the six months ending June 30, 1917. Those liable to the tax who do not pay are subject to a penalty of fifty per cent

Alone in their home at 71 Crown street, Meriden, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Parker Sunday celebrated the 66th anniversary of their marriage in Weathersfield, Vermont, January 28, 1851. 1851. Mrs. Parker was Laura A. Co-nant. Mr. Parker was born in Ash-ford, Conn. in 1826. Mrs. Parker came from Reading, Vermont.

subject to a penalty of fifty per cent.

REDEEM REVENUE STAMPS SOON AS POSSIBLE

Circular Letter Has Been Sent Out by Internal Revenue Collector.

Internal Revenue Collector James J Walsh has sent out a circular letter in reply to complaints received concerning delay in redeeming revenue stamps Although some of the claims have been in for two months or more, he says that the work is being pushed forward as fast as possible and that all will be paid. Claims will be considered in the order of their receipt, and no definite date can be set in any individual cass when refund will be made "The claimant should be satisfied with the information that the redemntion will be mation that the redemption will be made as soon as possible," concluded the letter.

Derby.—Papers were served yesterday making the Birmingham Iron foundry defendants in a suit for $15,000 damages by Deputy Sheriff Peter J. Dejon of New Haven. The case is returnable to the superior court on the first Tuesday in March. The case comes as the result of an accident which betell John Anderson at the company's plant a year ago. Anderson was employed by Oates Brothers, truckmen, and in handling freight at the foundry met with an injury to his leg.

PERSONALS

Miss M. C. Adles returned from New York Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. S. Drury and son Mason of Washington, D. C., are the guests of Mrs. Louis T. Cassidy. Mrs. Albin Hagstrom and daughter Elizabeth of Norwich are visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Hill of Niantic.

Dr. Robert B. Agnew of Norwich was a guest at the home of his parents in East Haven over Sunday.

Having spent the past week in Hart-ford, Miss Katherine McMahon has re-turned to her home in Hanover. Miss Edith Nacie has left for her home in Berea, Ohio, having been here since Christmas visiting her sunt, Mrs. Boyens of East Main street.

Mrs. Homer Richmond (Gladys Mac-Mullin) of New London, spent Tuesday as the guest of Captain and Mrs. Charles T. Potter, of Winchester street,

George M. Scott has returned from Westfield Mass., where his mother was injured in a trolley accident. Mrs. Scott will remain in Westfield for a

Miss Mary Pellett of East Hampton left for Stafford Springs, where she will spend a few days with her sis-ters, Mrs. M. Labonte and Miss Ther-LEFFINGWELL YOUNG PEOPLE WERE ROYALLY ENTERTAINED B. Y. P. U. Members Were Guests of First Baptist Society.

The young people of the Leffingwell Saptist church received a warm welome at the First Baptist church on Tuesday evening when they were the guests of the B. Y. P. U. at their Jan-guests of the B. Y. P. U. at their January social.

Earle Stamm, the president, presided at a short business meeting. The regular reports were read and approved. Suggestions for the good of the society were discussed and several adopted. Three new members were voted into membership.

After adjournment the social committee, Miss Lillian Crumb, chairman, Miss Fannie Meier, Clifford Oat, Walter M. Cowan and Miss Martha A.
Ward, took charge.

Ward, took charge.

The memory game proved a good test for both sight and memory.

Myra Ellis, Leslie Ward, Fannie Brown and George Amburn were chosen captains, companies were formed and a contest in "toss ball" was soon under way. Captain Myra Ellis with her company, Miss Marjory Phillips, Brenda House, Margaret Copeland and Harold Lindberg, in a hotly contested race, won the championship by the score of 2 to 0.

The committee invited all to the prettily arranged tables where forty were served cake, wafers and hot co-coa. Ward, took charge.

There was a vocal solo by Miss Gladys Meier and a duet by Miss Meier and Miss Mazie Stamm.

Making puzzles was entered into with enthusiasm. The picture gallery was a popular place where silhouettes were made to order in the most appropried style by Photographers Welproved style by Photographers Wal-ter M. Cowan and Clifford Oat. The pictures were later put on exhibition and a "Who's Who" guessing contest Game followed game until closing time when all pronounced the social one of the most enjoyable held by the society.

SHIPYARD EMPLOYES GO OUT ON STRIKE. Half a Thousand Men Want an Eight.

Hour Day. Between 400 and 500 men in the employ of the United States Steamship of the Connecticut Association of Women Workers to which the Norwich Girls' club belongs, has been held at the home of Miss Gertrude Whittemore in Naugatuck to plan for ing for an eight hour day. Carpenters blacksmiths, ironworkers, electricians, steamfitters, painters and all the helpers in these departments are out. A Sabbath quiet hovers over the village and there is not the least sign of a disturbance in any section. The men are quietly gathering in groups or remaining in their respective homes, talking things over, with no show of excitement. The shipyard is closed and the big gates are padlocked.

The trouble started over the posting of signs in the yard several days ago stating that on Feb. 1 an eight and a half hour day would be the working schedule, with pay and a half for over-

On Sunday the men met in New London, where many of them reside, and a committee was appointed to draw up a paper telling the company what the men desired. This was to the effect that an eight hour day was demanded, with double pay for overtime, Sundays and holidays, with the hame wages as at present.

It resulted in the immediate discharge of the entire committee ,and in sympathy and also to show their demand was meant the men struck Tuesday morning.

Those going into the village on cars of the Groton and Stonington line were met by mates at the waiting room and promptly joined issue with the strik-The men have been dissatisfied for some time and the decision of the company to give them an eight and a half hour day only added to it.

It is expected that Mr. Morse, president of the company, will arrive today.

FUNERALS Lydia C. Chapman.

The funeral of Lydia C. Chapman, widow of Charles F. Smith, was held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home of her son, Frank Q. Smith, No. 214 Laurel Hill avenue. In attendance were relatives and friends. Rev. F. J. Bohanan, rector of friends. Hev. F. J. Bohanan, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, of-ficiated. The bearers were Frank Smith, Robert H. Donohue, Donald Meech and Howard J. Randall. There were many beautiful floral offering, Burial was in Yantie cemetery, where Rev. Mr. Bohanan read a committal service. Undertakers Church & Allen were in charge of the funeral ar-rangements.

At 8:30 o'ciock Tuesday morning, the funeral of Joseph Jasinki, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Jasinski was held from 36 Thames street, with relatives and friends attending. Services were held n St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. Rev. F. V. Maciejewski officiated at services held in the church. Undertakers Shea & Burke were in charge of the funeral arrangements. Joseph Jasinski.

Mrs. John Murphy.

The funeral of Mrs. John Murphy was held from the home of her sister, Miss Bridget Kelly in Montville Sunday afternoon with services at St. John's church at 2 o'clocq, Rev. J. F. X. Quinn officiating. Requiem high mass was celebrated Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Among the many handsome floral tributes was a standing wreath of Easter lilles and white roses, given by the employes of the Palmer Bros. Co., where the deceased had been employed. Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery, New London. The bearers were John Mahoney, Michael J. Hickey, Joseph F. Killeen and Fred Dervin. Mrs. John Murphy.

SUES CITY FOR $6000 DAMAGES

Mary Lucy Files Damage Action as Result of Fall on Main Street-Claims Defective Sidewalk Was Cause of Her Injuries-Four Divorce Suits Filed With Clerk of Superior Court on Tuesday.

Claiming six thousand dollars damages for a fall on a Main street sidewalk, Mary Lucy has filed papers in an action against the City of Norwich with the clerk of the superior court. The papers were filed on Tuesday and are returnable the first Tuesday in February. In the complaint the plaintiff states that she was walking along Main street in front of the Ladies' Specialty company's store on December 20 last and fell from a defective sidewalk. She sustained severe injuries to her body and nervous system.

Papers in four divorce suits were also filed on Tuesday with the clerk of the superior court, Nellie E. Flannery of Stonington asks a divorce from John C. Flannery of Rockford, Ill., on grounds of intolerable cruelty. Her maiden name was Nellie E. Sylvia and she was united in marriage with Herbert N. Clark of the child.

A divorce is claimed by Melisa F. S. Bennett of this city from Charles of Norwich, on a charge of desertion. The couple were married on November 25, 1998, and het maiden name was Melisa F. Stinson. She charges desertion since Sept. 1919. In addition to a divorce she asks custody of her six-year-old child, Vernon Bennett.

On grounds of intolerable cruelty to a divorce from Walter Noll of this city of more divorce she asks that she be allowed to resume her maiden name.

Fannie Mitchell Clark of Mystic has walk, Mary Lucy has filed papers in an action against the City of Norwich with the clerk of the superior court. The papers were filed on Tuesday and are returnable the first Tuesday in February. In the complaint the plaintiff states that she was walking along Main street in front of the Ladies' Specialty company's store on December 20 last and fell from a defective sidewalk. She sustained severe injuries to her body and nervous system.

Papers in four divorce suits were also filed on Tuesday with the clerk of the superior court. Neilie E. Fiannery of Stonington asks a divorce from John C. Flannery of Rockford, Ill., on grounds of intolerable crueity. Her maiden name was Neilie E. Sylvia and she was united in marriage with John C. Flannery on Oct. 28, 1969. She charges intolerable crueity from November 1, 1913. In addition to her divorce she asks that she be allowed to resume her maiden name.

Fannie Mitchell Clark of Mystic has

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT AT 2nd CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Mother Goose and Her Family Paid Visit Especially for the Children.

There was a good attendance at a covel social and entertainment given in the form of moving pictures at the Second Congregational church Tues day evening. The program follows: Welcome, Miss Alice Higgins, Arnwelcome, Miss Alice Higgins, Arnold La Yierre: The Dashing Romance of Small Lochinvar, Downer Johnson,
Herbert Corey, Misses Louise Ernst,
Elsie Graham, Elsie Ernst, Ruth Lawson, Rosalind Cranston; special feature for the children, Mother Goose and Her Children, Mother Goose, Miss Elsie Sourbier; children, Robert Johnson, Sourbier; children, Robert Johnson Sheldon McNicke, Johanthan Johnson Sheldon McNic e, Jobanthan Johnson, Herbert Anderson, Misses Elizeabeth Higgins, Elsie Graham, Elizabeth La Pierre, Mary Wyckoff; song by the Three Young Singers, Misses Louise Roessler, Lydia Sourbier and Grace Parker; The Lady of Shalott, Mrs. Edwin W. Higgins and Arthur L. Peale; Ballet, the La-Di-Da by Miss Herbertina Coryina, Herbert Corey; The Courting, Mrs. D. S. Haviland, Ralph Graham and Miss Elsie Graham; Indian War Dance by three braves, Misses Louise Roessler, Lydia Sourbier and dian War Dance by three braves, Misses Louise Roessler, Lydia Sourbier and Grace Parker; Advertisements, Such as never have been produced elsewhere and probably never will be, John Sherman, Theodore Montgomery, Miss Louise Ernst, Miss Hazel Anderson, Miss Rose Breckenridge, Arthur L. Peale; Sweet and Low, Mrs. Henry F. Church and Mrs. Edwin W. Higgins; Good Night, Miss Alice Higgins and Arnold La Pierre.

The board of censorship comprised

The board of censorship comprised Rev. Herbert J. Wyckoff, Arthur L. Peale and J. D. Haviland. Elmer McKensie acted as official an-ouncer and Miss Louise Ernst did the reading.

With the compensation that the movie stars received on their tour which proved to be lemons they treated the audience with lemonade cookies.

The affair was arranged by Miss Mary R. Gibbs and members

FILES ACTION FOR

DAMAGES OF $3,000

B. Carpenter, vanity case; gentlements, first, C. J. Downes, umbrella; second, W. Kowhanski, box cigars.

M. Barry won the prize in forty-five which was a box of cigars. The judges in forty-five were T. F. Burns, Maurice Kelley and Daniel Donovan. The whist storage were John Sullivan. Herold Executors of the Estate of Walter Learned Made Defendants in Suit

Ricardo R. Morgan of New Lo has brought suit against Alfred Coit of New London and Charles E. White of Groton, executors of the estate of Walter Learned, late of New London, water Learned, late of New London, claiming three thousand dollars damages. The papers in the case were filed with the clerk of the superior court in this city on Tuesday and returnable before the court on the first Tuesday in February. The plaintiff claims that Walter Learned was indebted to him on Sant 28, 1216 for the claims that waiter Learned was in-debted to him on Sept. 26, 1916, for the sum of $2,900. After Mr. Learned's death Mr. Morgan presented his claim to the executors of the estate and the claim was disallowed.

JUDGE REED GRANTS

JUDGMENT FOR $1353.30 Plaintiff Will Recover in Case Against Oscar Greenenwald, Et Al.

Judgment for a total of $1,353.30 was granted the plaintiff in the case of Julia O'Sullivan of New London vs. Oscar Greenenwald and Pauline S. Greenenwald, also of New London, by Judge Joel H. Reed in the superior court on Tuesday. By the judgment the plaintiff will recover of the defendants jointly or severally the sum defendants jointly or severally the sum of $541.93 and of the defendant, Pauline S. Greenenwald, the sum of $811.-37. The action was brought for recovery on a loan and damages of $1,-500 were asked.

ELKS LADIES' NIGHT.

Bowling, Pool, Billiards and Old Fash ioned Dances Features of Evening.

Ladies night at the Elks' was well attended by many on Tuesday evening. Bowling, pool and billards were en-joyed by members of the fair sex and from 8 to 0 o'clock The Ideal Mandolin Club under the direction of William Harder gave a delightful concert. The dance music was furnished by the Scotland Road Symphony orchestra of three pieces. Prof. Tinkham offici-ated as prompter for the square sets and old time dances. All the old timers were danced and punch was served. The arrangements were in charge of Hahn Leads Pinochle Tourney. In the West Side pinochle club to nament on Monday night Hahn who had high score for the evening ook first place displacing Lewis who ook second.

took second.

The scores for the evening were:
Hahn 8395, A. Jordan 8395, J. Jordan
7010, Underwood 6825, Lewis 6740, Pendieton 6665, Larsen 6605, Pettis 6450, Halliesey 6360, Reeves 6305, Balley 6265, Peckham 5690. The standing is as follows: Hahn 30,080, Lewis 28,966,
J. Jordan 28,275, A. Jordan 28,095, Balley
27,915, Pendieton 26,370, Hallisey
27,915, Larsen 25,885, Pettis 25,685,
Reeves 25,175, Underwood 25,250, Peckham 23,245.

In the City Court.

At a session of the city court Tuesday, two Greeneville lads were given some fatherly advice by Deputy Judge H. H. Pettis, who presided in the absence of Judge J. H. Barnes. The boys stole eggs from a shed. The matter was continued until March 1. The case against Hyman Fisher who has failed to support his family was continued until March 1.

GREAT REWARDS FOR CONFIDENCE

Implicit Faith in Tanlac Has Been Brought About by Circumstances

THOUSANDS GET

Sound statements are based on exact knowledge and such knowledge can only be gained by experience. The great faith hundreds of thousands of people have in Tanlac, the National Tonic, has been brought about by circumstances.

Most people judge Tanlac as a man judges an old friend, not by a quick impression, but by what they have actually seen it do.

Beyond the evidence of any one locality stand tens of thousands of people in all parts of America who are ready to vouch for Tanlac. These are people who are grateful for the relief Tanlac has given them in stomach, kidney, liver and catarrhal aliments.

Tanlac's healing and strength-giving qualities are derived from roots, herbs, flowers and berries, gathered in many parts of the world. herbs, flowers and berries, gathered in many parts of the world.

Many say they actually have not known what it was to eat with comfort for years before they took Tanlac. Others say it has restored their nerves and brought them peaceful, restful, healthy sleep. Still others extol its merits as a blood purifier, a remedy for catarrh, and the many ills which arise from a catarrhal condition of the mucous membranes.

Tanlac is being introduced in Norwich at Smith's Rx. Store, 205 Main street. It may also be obtained in Jewett City at Gorman's Drug Store, and in Coichester at Otis' Pharmacy. NORWICH SCOUT OFFICIALS

WILL BE REPRESENTED.

Two Will Attend National Conferen

ucation.

at Columbia College.

This conference will be the largest conference ever held for the discussion of scouting problems and it will bring together some of the most notable experts in the movement. They will lecture, give demonstrations and be available for personal interviews.

Crowd Thonged Council Chambers

Sheridan and Nicholas Spellma

T. A. B. Hall.

A class of 50 candidates will be initiated at a big meeting of Lafayette

LOYALTY CLASS MEMBERS

Mrs. Herbert Willey.

The Loyalty class of the First Bap-

the Loyalty class of the First Bap-tist Bible school was entertained at its January meeting by their teacher, Mrs. Herbert Willey at her home on Asylum street, Tuesday evening. Fourteen members were present. Fol-lowing an interesting business meet-ing a social time was spent and ing a social time was spent and a dainty supper was served by the hos-tess, closing a most enjoyable even-

Incidents In Society

Mrs. Dwight H. Hough is in New-own, Conn., for a few days.

The Sewing Club met Monday af-ernoon with Mrs. Ralph Eaton.

Miss Isabel Mitchell has returned from a visit with New York friends.

Miss Winifred Welles has returned from a visit of several days in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard O. Smith of Oldelms are guests at the Hotel Ridgewood, Daytons, Florida.

WILL INITIATE BIG

Sunlight Building.

SEVENTY TABLES AT

Norwich Boy Scout officials will be COUPLE ARE HELD represented at the eastern section of the national conference of Boy Scout officials which will be held on Friday BY PHILADE) LPHIA POLICE Awaiting Extradition on Charge of a at Saturday at Columbia college.

The section is divided into two parts, one for scoutmasters and assistants, which will be attended by Herbert J. Wyckoff, scoutmaster of Troop No. 1.

The other division is for executives and commissioners and B.M. Physics of the control of t Statutory Offense. Adam Panace and Velvina Kiker Adam Panace and Velvina Riker, both of New London are being held by the Philadelphia police awaiting extradition papers that will bring them to Conecticut, Panace is charged with adultery and abandonment. Both belong in New London and it is alleged that they left together about two weeks ago. The woman is married and has two children. commissioners, and B. M. Bruce, scout commissioner, will be the delegate. In the scoutmasters' section there will be classes for instruction of vari-ous phases of Boy Scout work. At the scout executives' conference various important topics will be discussed.

The session Friday evening will be a noteworthy one. Addresses will be Lieut. T. F. Downing of the state a noteworthy one. Addresses will be given by Dr. George J. Fisher and Dr. James E. Russell. Dr. Fisher is at the head of the department of physical education of the international committee of the Y. M. C. A. and is a member of the commission appointed to put into operation the law for compulsory military training in the state of New York, Dr. Russell is the dean of Teachers' college, Columbia university, and a member of the new department of education. and he is now preparing extradition papers which will go to the governor in order that regustion may be made on the governor of Pennsylvania.

COMMON PLEAS SUIT. Charles E. Burgess Company Made Defendant in Damage Action.

The Charles E. Burgess Co. of New London has been made a defendant in a suit for $600, brought by Raymond & Alexander of New London. Property belonging to the company which conducts a planing mill in fiaminiton street, was attached. The suit is to recover for a note of $75, rent of $250 and material amounting to $191.

Bradley Mission Charter Members. THE K. OF C. WHIST In connection with the proposed change of name of the Bradley Street change of name of the Bradley Street mission, of New Lordon, it may be of interest to know that the charter mem-bers of Central mission were: Rich-ard Chapel, J. C. Learned, William C. Crump, Alfred Coit, Sr., Charles M. Wilcox, J. N. Harris, C. A. Williams, William B. Lewis and Henry C. Weaver (the only one now living.) One of the most successful whists ever held by the Knights of Columbus was held in the Sunlight building Tuesday night when there were 70 tables. The rooms were taxed to their capacity. The prizes were won by the following: ladies, first, Mrs. D. C. Sultivan, ebony toilet set; second, Mrs. C. B. Carpenter, vanity case; gentlemen's, Mrs. Dwight F. Niles. Mrs. Mercy E. Gibson Niles, widow of Dwight F. Niles, died at her home, No. 192 Jefferson street, Hartford, Monday evening. She was born in Killingly, September 11, 1850, a daugh-Killingly, September 11, 1850, a daugh-ter of Jarab Gibson, formerly of Cov-entry, R. I., and Mary (Dawley) Gib-son, Mrs. Niles leaves a daughter, Mrs. Edward S. Lamson, with whom she lived; a son, Arthur D. Niles, and one brother, Job Gibson of Canaan. Scorers were John Sullivan, Harold Desmond, Jeremiah Desmond, Neil Driscoll, Thomas Buckley, Jeremiah Downing, Thomas McCaffrey, Raoul Bellereur, Patrick Kelley, Joseph Farrell and John Donovan.

OBITUARY.

Following the whist dancing was enjoyed until a late hour with music furnished by the Lyric four piece orches-William A. Gallup. At 11.15 o'clock Tuesday night William A. Gallup died at his home in Leffingweil in his 91st year. Mr. Gallup had been in his usual good health up to a short time age but had failed Punch was served and the committee in charge comprised Joseph Gadle, chairman, William H. Harrington, Harold Desmond, John Sullivan, James rapidly since then. He was born in Ledyard on June 9, 1826. For a time he was employed by a large publish-ing concern but had devoted the greater part of his life to farming. For a number of years he made his home at East Great Plain with his son, Fred A. Gallup, but of late he had resided with his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Leffingwell in Leffingwell. He is survived by two sons, William M. Gallup of Woodstocw and Fred A. Gallup of East Great Plain and one daughter, CLASS ON SUNDAY Fifty Candidates Will Take Degree in council, No. 207, L'Union St. John Baptist of America, which will be held in T. A. B. hall on Sunday afternoon. Besides the degree work, the recently elected officers will be installed for the year 1917. Samuel W. Tibbits. Funeral services were held Saturday for Samuel W. Tibbits, who died on Thursday at the home of his daugh-ter, Mrs. Samuel Robinson, in Montyear 1917.

Mrs. Thomas Leffingwell of Leffing-

The committee in charge have arranged for out of town speakers, and among some of them will be Eugene J. Jalbert of Woonsocket, R. L., and Ludger J. Morin of Danielson, first grand vice president of the society.

Representatives from the various councils throughout the state will be present. There will also be a musical ville. His death was due to cancer, from which he had suffered since July last. He was born in East Greenwich Feb. 27, 1840. He had resided about 10 years in Montville. The services were conducted by Rev. Fred E. Co-burn, pastor of the First Groton Bap-tist church, Old Mystic. Frederick N. present. There will also be a musical program which will be followed by a luncheon. The large class for the initiation was brought about through the efforts of Organizer J. H. La-Flamme of Providence, R. I., who will be a to Lewett City after he completes Tibbits of Rockland, Mass., John Ham-liton of Hamilton, R. L. O. N. Rice of Greenwood, R. L. and Andrew Knee-land of Old Mystic officiated as bear-ers. Burial was at Elm Grove ceme-tery. He is survived by six daughters, Mrs. Samuel Robinson of Old Mystic, go to Jewett City after he completes his work in this city. Mrs. Samuel Robinson of Old Mystic, Mrs. O. L. Rich of Greenwood, R. I., Mrs. George Waldick of Prudence, W. Va., Mrs. John Mathewson of Hamil-ton, R. I., Mrs. Joseph Greene of Belle-ville, R. I., Miss Mary Tibbits of Exe-ter, R. I., and a son, Frederick N. Tibbits, of Rockland, Mass. GUESTS OF TEACHERS Pleasant Evening Passed at Home of

Anton Bodenwein. Anton Bodenwein.

Anton Bodenwein, father of Theodore Bodenwein, died Tuesday afternoon, aged 80 years. Mr. Bodenwein was a native of Germany and came to this country in 1868. Prior to that time he had served for two years in the war between Austria and Prussia. He was a shoemaker by trade and the first eight years of his residence in the United States were spent with his family in Groton. Since then he had lived continuously in New London.

He was a charter member of Her-wegh lodge, O. D. H. S., and at one time was prominent in German fra-ternal circles. About 15 years ago he retired from active business. Until a comparatively recent period he had enjoyed remarkably good health and did not show his age. For the past

There is a difference between Saving the Hair and trying to resurrect it

HERPICIDE 222 is a hair saver!

Guaranteed by The Herpicide Co.

Boys' Suit Sale

Knickerbocker Suits

7 to 18-year sizes at

20% to 40% Reduction

A great big chance to buy Children's Clothes cheap. No attention whatever is paid to the present advanced cost of this kind of merchandise. Fit out your boy now for spring.

Suits as low as $2.00, and the $10.00 Suits reduced to Big assortment in the best selling grades.

$5.00, $6.50 and $7.50 Suits at $3.75, $4.75 and

Commencing this morning. MEN'S SUITS and OVER. COATS also at reduced prices.

"Good Clothes Store"

two or three years, however, he has two or three years, however, he had been practically confined to his home, being usable to get about readily.

While his death was not unexpected, nevertheless there was a rapid decline in his condition in the last few days. Asthma brought about his final collapse. Thesday morning following breakfast he fell asleep in his chair where a few minutes later he expired from heart failure. Mrs. Bodenwein died in 1898.

CENTRAL VILLAGE COUPLE . SIXTY-FIVE YEARS MARRIED

Wedding Anniversary Was Observed at Their Home-Norwich Guests Present Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Lewis of Central Village celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary on Saturday. Covers were aninversary on Saturday.

Inid for 12. A delicious chicken pie dinner was served. The table was attractively decorated with flowers and a large wedding cake. The guests from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rathbun, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bogue and Filhert I. Johnson of Norwich.

and Elbert L. Johnson of Norwich.

District Deputy Hanlon Installed Of-Hartford council, Improved Order of Heptasophs, elected and installed officers for the current year at the annual meeting. Saturday evening. District Deputy T. J. Hanlon of Nor-

Four New Members. Four more new members for the chamber of commerce were secured on Monday. There have been women sailors mong the Finns and Norwegians for wich was installing officer.

DIED. GALLUP-In Leffingwell, Jan. 20, 1917,

William A. Gallup, in his 91st year

Ah-h-ah-ttisshooo!! Catching Cold? Get a Bottle of Mentho-Laxene

Take as directed—right away. Checks and aborts colds and coughs in 24 hours. Guaranteed. Nothing so good. Proven as. Makes a pint of Cough Syrup. All drug-CUMMINGS & RING

Funeral Directors and Embalmers

337 MAIN STREET Opposite Post Office

'Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

YOU CAN

Always depend upon finding here just what you want in the way of Jewelry Watches, Clocks, Diamonds and Silverware. Anything bought here will stand the most careful inspection too. What is more, the man or woman who buys here has not only a large variety from which to make a selection but is assured of the best values. F. W. GUILD, Jeweter, Phone 799-3